REPORT NO.

25X1X

1. All plans for a general strike in the western sectors of Berlin should be worked out immediately. Plans for the phase of the strike affecting transportation should be ready to be put into effect by 9 A.M. 27 June.
2. [REDACTED] similar letters have gone to all local SED and FDGB headquarters. This is claimed to be the answer not to the currency reform but to the action of OM(U.S. of 25 June concerning the transfer of FDGB property to the UGO and the outlawing of FDGB activities in the American sector.
3. It is said that a secret meeting was held by the FDGB and that there is unwillingness to carry out the plan.
